

Casa de Santar

Branco 2007

THE WINE: This is an estate-produced white wine from one of Portugal's most historically significant wineries. The wine reveals an array fruit flavors and aromas as well as a nice minerality. It is balanced by a fresh acidity, making it great for food.

PRESS :

87 eRobertParker.com: ...Clean and bright, it has good texture and just enough depth to feel substantial...the wine is awfully friendly and tasty. Wine Advocate, #180, 12/08

85 Wine Spectator, A ripe style with peach apple and citrus flavors, with touches of pineapple that linger on the spicy finish. 10/31/08

88 Wine & Spirits, 4/09

87 Wine Enthusiast, 4/09

TASTING NOTES: Fresh aromas of white peach, fennel and thyme lead to a medium-bodied mouth feel with a touch of lemon zest and a nice minerality. The dry finish lingers with herbs and citron-laced ripe golden apples. Perfect with shellfish, fried calamari or mildly spiced dishes.

DENOMINATION: Dão, DOC

VINTAGE: 2007

GRAPES: Encruzado, Cerceal-branco

COUNTRY: Portugal

CASE SIZE: 6/750ml

UPC: 738241003947

SUGGESTED RETAIL: $15

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Estate produced by the Dão region's most important wineries
- 2007 was an exceptional year in the region
- Great with seafood or slightly spicy dishes

www.signatureimports.com