PRESS:

"Best of Tasting", Boston Globe, Boston Globe annual Plonkapalooza, Stephen Meuse, October 28, 2009.

84 pts Wine Spectator (2006 vintage): A spicy, fruity red, with red plum and berry flavours and hints of maple and butter.
November 2007

TASTING NOTES: The wine is bright purple in color with fruity aromas of ripe cherry and plum. It opens up in the mouth with a burst of fruit. Clean, fresh flavors to finish with a refreshing acidity.

THE WINE: Vinzelo is a bright young wine produced by Quinta de Ventozelo, one of the oldest quintas in the Douro region. The wine is a blend of five grape varieties which are typical of the Douro region and also among the grapes used to produce Port. After fermentation the wine rests in stainless steel for three months before release, forgoing any oak aging to preserve the freshness of the fruit.
